Acknowledgement of Hiring Department's Responsibilities

By signing below, the department accepts responsibility for the accuracy of this form and certifies the following:

1. Employment of this H-1B non-immigrant employee will not adversely affect the working conditions of workers similarly employed. Further, this employee will be afforded working conditions on the same basis, and in accordance to the same criteria, as offered to similarly employed U.S. workers.
2. The department will notify HRM any changes in this employee's working conditions including salary, physical location of the job, hours, title, benefits, etc.
3. The department understands that it is liable for the reasonable cost of return transportation abroad for this employee if they are dismissed from employment by the University before the period authorized under H-1B status. The department also understands that a written offer of such must be made to the employee upon dismissal.
4. The department understands that it is responsible for covering the $460 form filing fee associated with the H-1B petition. Additionally, the department is responsible for the $500 fraud and detection fee that MUST be paid with a new H-1B petition or when an employee changes sponsors within an H-1B classification. If premium processing is required, the department is expected to pay the $2,500 processing fee, unless the fees are necessitated for personal reasons on behalf of the employee.
5. If, after consultation with your HR Generalist, the department moves forward with the Labor Condition Application (LCA) before receiving the prevailing wage determination from the Department of Labor Office of Foreign Labor Certification, then the department agrees to increase the employee's wage and provide back-pay if the prevailing wage issued by DOL is higher than the actual wage in the offer letter.
